1 Principles

- 1.1 The guidance given in the policy and procedures is based on the following principles:

The six principles of adult safeguarding

The Care Act sets out the following principles that should underpin safeguarding of adults.

Empowerment - People being supported and encouraged to make their own decisions and informed consent.

"I am asked what I want as the outcomes from the safeguarding process, and these directly inform what happens."

Prevention – It is better to take action before harm occurs.

"I receive clear and simple information about what abuse is, how to recognise the signs and what I can do to seek help."

Proportionality – The least intrusive response appropriate to the risk presented.

"I am sure that the professionals will work in my interest, as I see them, and they will only get involved as much as needed."

Protection – Support and representation for those in greatest need.

"I get help and support to report abuse and neglect. I get help so that I am able to take part in the safeguarding process to the extent to which I want."

Partnership – Local solutions through services working with their communities. Communities have a part to play in preventing, detecting, and reporting neglect and abuse.

"I know that staff treat any personal and sensitive information in confidence, only sharing what is helpful and necessary. I am confident that professionals will work together and with me to get the best result for me."

Accountability – Accountability and transparency in delivering safeguarding.

"I understand the role of everyone involved in my life and so do they."

- 1.1.1 All adults, regardless of age, ability or disability, gender, race, religion, ethnic origin, sexual orientation, marital or gender status have the right to be protected from abuse and poor practice and to participate in an enjoyable and safe environment.
- 1.1.2 Energize STW will seek to ensure that our programmes are inclusive and make reasonable adjustments for any ability, disability, or impairment, we will also commit to continuous development, monitoring and review.
- 1.1.3 The rights, dignity and worth of all adults will always be respected.

- 1.1.4 We recognise that ability and disability can change over time, such that some adults may be additionally vulnerable to abuse, for example those who have a dependency on others or have different communication needs.
- 1.1.5 We recognise that a disabled adult may or may not identify themselves or be identified as an adult 'at risk'.
- 1.1.6 We all have a shared responsibility to ensure the safety and well-being of all adults and will act appropriately and report concerns whether these concerns arise within Energize STW or in the wider community.
- 1.1.7 All allegations will be taken seriously and responded to quickly in line with this policy – 'Energize STW Safeguarding Adults Policy and Procedures'.
- 1.1.8 Energize STW recognises the role and responsibilities of the statutory agencies in safeguarding adults and is committed to complying with the procedures of the Local Safeguarding Adults Boards (Telford and Wrekin Safeguarding Partnership and Keeping Adults Safe in Shropshire Board).

1.2 Wellbeing Principle

- 1.2.1 The concept of 'well-being' is threaded throughout UK legislation and is part of the Law about how health and social care is provided. Our well-being includes our mental and physical health, our relationships, our connection with our communities and our contribution to society.
- 1.2.2 Being able to live free from abuse and neglect is a key element of well-being.
- 1.2.3 Any actions taken to safeguard an adult must take their whole well-being into account and be proportionate to the risk of harm.

1.3 Person Centred Safeguarding / Making Safeguarding Personal

- 1.3.1 The concept of 'Person Centred Safeguarding' / 'Making Safeguarding Personal' means engaging the person in a conversation about how best to respond to their situation in a way that enhances their involvement, choice, and control, as well as improving their quality of life, well-being, and safety.
- 1.3.2 The adult's views, wishes, feelings and beliefs must be considered when decisions are made about how to support them to be safe. There may be many different ways to prevent further harm. Working with the person will mean that actions taken help them to find the solution that is right for them.
- 1.3.3 Treating people with respect, enhancing their dignity, and supporting their ability to make decisions also helps promote people's sense of self-worth and supports recovery from abuse.

2 Guidance and Legislation

2.1 The practices and procedures within this policy are based on the principles contained within the UK legislation and Government Guidance, and have been developed to complement the Safeguarding Adults Boards policy and procedures, and take the following into consideration:

- The Care Act 2014
- The Protection of Freedoms Act 2012
- Domestic Violence, Crime and Victims (Amendment) Act 2012
- The Equality Act 2010
- The Safeguarding Vulnerable Groups Act 2006
- Mental Capacity (Amendment) Act 2019
- Sexual Offences Act 2003
- The Human Rights Act 1998
- The Data Protection Act 2018 and General Data Protection Regulations 2018

3 Definitions

3.1 To assist working through and understanding this policy several key definitions need to be explained:

3.1.1 Adult at Risk is a person aged 18 or over who is in need of care and support regardless of whether they are receiving them, and because of those needs are unable to protect themselves against abuse or neglect.

In recent years there has been a marked shift away from using the term 'vulnerable' to describe adults potentially at risk from harm or abuse.

3.1.2 Abuse is a violation of an individual's human and civil rights by another person or persons. See section 5 for further explanations.

3.1.3 Adult is anyone aged 18 or over.

3.1.4 Adult safeguarding is protecting a person's right to live in safety, free from abuse and neglect.

3.1.5 Capacity refers to the ability to make a decision at a particular time, for example when under considerable stress. The starting assumption must always be that a person has the capacity to make a decision unless it can be established that they lack capacity (Mental Capacity (Amendment) Act 2019).

4 Mental Capacity and Decision Making

4.1 The Law says that to make a decision we need to:

- Understand information,
- Remember it for long enough,
- Think about the information,
- Communicate our decision.

A person's ability to do this may be affected by things such as but not limited to learning disability, dementia, mental health needs, acquired brain injury and physical ill health.

- 4.1.1 Mental capacity refers to the ability to make a decision at the time that decision is needed. A person's mental capacity can change. If it is safe or possible, it is best to wait until they are able to be involved in decision making or to make the decision themselves.
- 4.1.2 Mental Capacity must be considered when we believe abuse or neglect might be taking place. It is important to make sure an 'adult at risk' has choices in the actions taken to safeguard them, including whether or not they want other people informed about what has happened. However, in some situations the adult may not have the mental capacity to understand the choice or to tell you their views.

The Mental Capacity Act contains five key principles:

Principle 1 – A presumption of capacity.

Principle 2 – The right to be supported when making decisions.

Principle 3 – An unwise decision cannot be seen as a wrong decision.

Principle 4 – Best interests must be at the heart of all decision making.

Principle 5 – Any intervention must be with the least restriction possible.

- 4.1.3 If a person who has a lot of difficulty making their own decisions is thought to be being abused or neglected you will need to refer the situation to the Local Authority, and this should result in health or social care professionals making an assessment of mental capacity and/or getting the person the support they need to make decisions.

5 Types of Abuse and Neglect - Definitions from the Care Act 2014

- 5.1 This is not intended to be an exhaustive list but an illustrative guide as to the sort of behaviour or issue which could give rise to a safeguarding concern:
 - 5.1.1 Self-neglect – this covers a wide range of behaviour; neglecting to care for one's personal hygiene, health or surroundings and may include behaviours such as hoarding. This could be someone whose appearance becomes unkempt, does not wear suitable clothing and a deterioration in hygiene.
 - 5.1.2 Modern Slavery – encompasses slavery, human trafficking, forced labour and domestic servitude. Traffickers and slave masters use whatever means they have at their disposal to coerce, deceive, and force individuals into a life of abuse, servitude, and inhumane treatment. You may notice that someone has been missing from sessions/appointments etc. and is not responding to messages or other contact.
 - 5.1.3 Domestic Abuse (including coercive control) – including psychological, physical, sexual, financial, and emotional abuse. It also includes so called 'honour' based violence. You may notice a power imbalance between a participant and a family member. For example, a participant with Down's

Syndrome may be looking quiet and withdrawn when their brother comes to collect them from sessions, in contrast to their personal assistant whom they greet with a smile.

- 5.1.4 Discriminatory – discrimination is abuse which centres on a difference or perceived difference particularly with respect to race, gender, or disability or any of the protected characteristics of the Equality Act. For example, this could be the harassing of someone because they are or are perceived to be transgender.
- 5.1.5 Organisational/Institutional Abuse – including neglect and poor care practice within an institution or specific care setting such as a hospital or care home for example, or in relation to care provided in one's own home. This may range from one off incidents to on-going ill-treatment. It can be through neglect or poor professional practice as a result of the structure, policies, processes and practices within an organisation. This could be not allowing someone the necessary breaks they may require.
- 5.1.6 Physical Abuse – includes hitting, slapping, pushing, kicking, misuse of medication, restraint, or inappropriate sanctions. This could be intentionally striking someone.
- 5.1.7 Sexual Abuse – including rape, indecent exposure, sexual harassment, inappropriate looking or touching, sexual teasing or innuendo, sexual photography, subjection to pornography or witnessing sexual acts, indecent exposure and sexual assault or sexual acts to which the adult has not consented or was pressured into consenting. This could be a fellow participant who sends unwanted sexually explicit text messages to a learning-disabled adult they are training alongside.
- 5.1.8 Financial or Material Abuse – including theft, fraud, internet scamming, coercion in relation to an adult's financial affairs or arrangements, including in connection with wills, property, inheritance or financial transactions, or the misuse or misappropriation of property, possessions, or benefits. This could be someone taking equipment/possessions from another person with dementia.
- 5.1.9 Neglect & acts of Omission – including ignoring medical or physical care needs, failure to provide access to appropriate health, social care or educational services, the withholding of the necessities of life, such as medication, adequate nutrition, and heating. This could be a coach not ensuring participants have access to water.
- 5.1.10 Emotional, Psychological or Mental Abuse – this includes threats of harm or abandonment, deprivation of contact, humiliation, blaming, controlling, intimidation, coercion, harassment, verbal abuse, isolation or withdrawal from services or supportive networks. This could be a participant threatening another participant with physical harm and persistently blaming them for poor performance.

5.2 Not included in the Care Act 2014 but also relevant:

- 5.2.1 Cyber Bullying - cyber bullying occurs when someone repeatedly makes fun of another person online or repeatedly picks on another person through emails or text messages, or uses online forums with the intention of harming, damaging, humiliating, or isolating another person. It can be used to carry out many different types of bullying (such as racist, homophobic, or bullying related to special educational needs and disabilities) but instead of the perpetrator carrying out the bullying face-to-face, they use technology as a means to do it.
- 5.2.2 Forced Marriage - forced marriage is a term used to describe a marriage in which one or both of the parties are married without their consent or against their will. A forced marriage differs from an arranged marriage, in which both parties consent to the assistance of a third party in identifying a spouse. The Anti-social Behaviour, Crime and Policing Act 2014 make it a criminal offence to force someone to marry.
- 5.2.3 Mate Crime - a 'mate crime' as defined by the Safety Net Project is 'when vulnerable people are befriended by members of the community who go on to exploit and take advantage of them. It may not be an illegal act but still has a negative effect on the individual.' Mate Crime is carried out by someone the adult knows and often happens in private. In recent years there have been several Serious Case Reviews relating to people with a learning disability who were murdered or seriously harmed by people who purported to be their friend.
- 5.2.4 Radicalisation - the aim of radicalisation is to attract people to their reasoning, inspire new recruits and embed their extreme views and persuade vulnerable individuals of the legitimacy of their cause. This may be direct through a relationship, or through social media.
- 5.2.5 Female Genital Mutilation (FGM) – FGM is a procedure where the female genitals are deliberately cut, injured, or changed, but there's no medical reason for this to be done. It's also known as female circumcision or cutting, and by other terms, such as Sunna, gudniin, halalays, tahir, megrez and khitan, among others. It is illegal in the UK and can seriously harm the health of women and girls. It can also cause long-term problems with sex, childbirth and mental health.

6. Signs and indicators of abuse and neglect

- 6.1 Abuse can take place in any context and by all manner of perpetrators. Abuse may be inflicted by anyone in the club/group environment who a participant comes into contact with. Club/group members, workers, volunteers, or coaches could also suspect that a participant is being abused or neglected outside of the club/group setting. There are many signs and indicators that may suggest someone is being abused or neglected, these include but are not limited to:

- 6.1.1 Unexplained bruises or injuries – or lack of medical attention when an injury is present.
- 6.1.2 Person has belongings or money going missing.
- 6.1.3 Person is not attending / no longer enjoying their sessions.
- 6.1.4 Someone losing or gaining weight / an unkempt appearance.
- 6.1.5 A change in the behaviour or confidence of a person.
- 6.1.6 They may self-harm.
- 6.1.7 They may have a fear of a particular group or individual.
- 6.1.8 They may tell you / another person they are being abused – i.e. a disclosure.

7 What to do if you have a concern or someone raises concerns with you.

- 7.1 You may become aware that abuse or poor practice is taking place, suspect abuse or poor practice may be occurring or be told about something that may be abuse or poor practice and you must report this to the Energize STW Lead or Deputy Safeguarding Officer, or, if the Lead/Deputy Safeguarding Officer is implicated then report to the Energize STW Chief Executive.
- 7.1.1 If you are at an event and have a concern then speak to the coach, a team official or the designated welfare lead.
- 7.1.2 If you are concerned someone is in immediate danger, contact the police straight away.
- 7.1.3 It is important when considering your concern that you also consider the needs and wishes of the person at risk, taking into account the nature of the alert.

8 Reporting a concern

8.1 Reporting concerns about yourself

- 8.1.1 If you are in immediate danger or need immediate medical assistance contact the emergency services 999.
- 8.1.2 Please contact the Lead or Deputy Safeguarding Officer. If you would prefer, you can contact another member of staff who will help you raise the issue to the Lead or Deputy Safeguarding Officer.
- 8.1.3 If the Lead or Deputy Safeguarding Officer is implicated or you think has a conflict of interest, then report to the Chief Executive Officer (CEO).
- 8.1.4 You can also contact the Police, Social Services, your doctor, or other organisations that can provide information and give help and support (see Appendix 4 - Sources of information and support).

- 8.1.5 If you do not think your concerns are being addressed in the way that they should be please contact the CEO or a member of the Energize Board (info@energizestw.org.uk).
- 8.1.6 At all stages you are welcome to have someone who you trust support you, help you to explain what happened and what you want to happen.

8.2 Reporting concerns about others

- 8.2.1 Make a note of what the person has said using their own words as soon as practicable. Contact Energize STW to complete an incident form (see Appendix 1 - Incident Report Form) and submit to the Energize STW Lead or Deputy Safeguarding Officer.
- 8.2.2 Remember to be person centred/make safeguarding personal. If it will not put them or you at further risk, discuss your safeguarding concerns with the adult and ask them what they would like to happen next. Inform them that you have to pass on your concerns to your Lead/Deputy Safeguarding Officer.
- 8.2.3 Describe the circumstances in which the disclosure came about.
- 8.2.4 It is important to distinguish between things that are facts, things that have been observed or over-heard and opinions, in order to ensure that information is as accurate as possible.
- 8.2.5 Be mindful of the need to be confidential at all times, this information must only be shared with your Lead or Deputy Safeguarding Officer and others on a need-to-know basis.
- 8.2.6 If the matter is urgent and relates to the immediate safety of an adult then contact the police immediately.

8.3 Recording and information sharing

- 8.3.1 Organisations must comply with the Data Protection Act (DPA) and the General Data Protection Regulations (GDPR).

The Data Protection Act 2018 allows for sharing of “special category personal data” without consent of the data subject for the purpose of safeguarding adults with care and support needs. Information can be shared legally without consent if a practitioner or agency is unable to gain consent from the adult. Wherever possible, information should be shared in an appropriate, secure way. Practitioners must always follow their organisation’s policy on security for handling personal information.

- 8.3.2 Information about concerns of abuse includes personal data. Records relating to safeguarding concerns must be accurate and relevant. They must be stored confidentially with access only to those with a need to know.
- 8.3.3 Information should only be shared with family and friends and/or carers with the consent of the adult or if the adult does not have capacity to make that decision and family/friends/carers need to know in order to help keep the person safe.

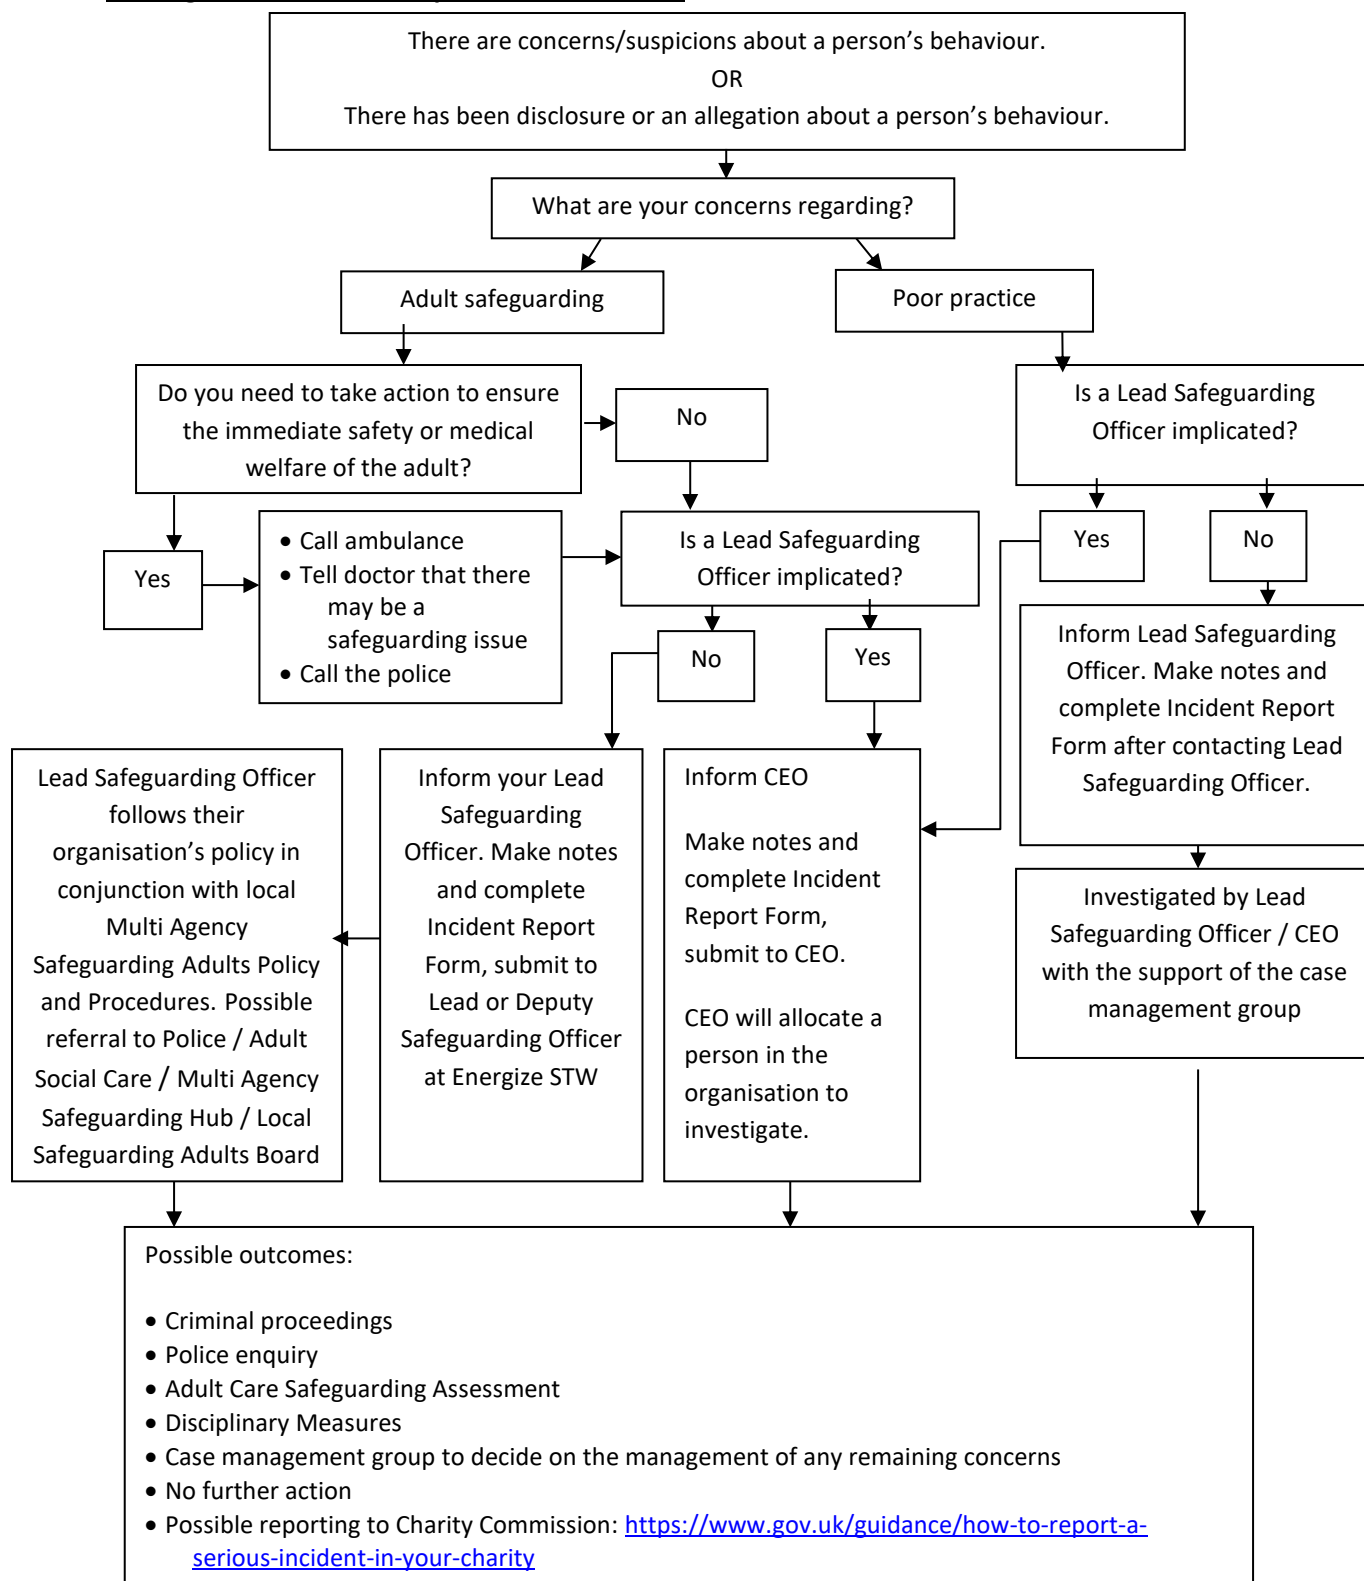

- 8.3.4 Personal information can be shared with the consent of the adult concerned. However, the adult may not always want information to be shared. Their wishes should be respected unless there are over-riding reasons for sharing information.
- 8.3.5 The circumstances when we need to share information without the adult's consent include those where:
- It is not safe to contact the adult to gain their consent – i.e. it might put them or the person making contact at further risk.
 - You believe they or someone else is at risk, including children.
 - You believe the adult is being coerced or is under duress.
 - It is necessary to contact the police to prevent a crime, or to report that a serious crime has been committed.
 - The adult does not have mental capacity to consent to information being shared about them.
 - The person causing harm has care and support needs.
- 8.3.6 When information is shared without the consent of the adult this must be explained to them, when it is safe to do so, and any further actions should still fully include them.
- 8.3.7 Any decision to share or not to share information with an external person or organisation must be recorded, including the reasons to share or not share information.

If you are concerned about the safeguarding practice of another organisation, this is to be challenged appropriately through their relevant processes and procedures that will be stipulated in their policies.

If you are unsure of the organisations processes and procedures or require any support in reporting a concern you can contact Energize Lead or Deputy Safeguarding Officers for assistance.

12 Safeguarding concerns about people who are in a position of trust

Introduction

Whether through employment or in peoples' personal lives, if someone commits abuse or a crime(s) against any child or adult, it may mean that they pose an increased risk to adults who have care and support needs.

It is therefore important that safeguarding concerns about people who hold a 'position of trust' are shared using multi-agency safeguarding procedures and that key partners are able to contribute to initial enquiries and any subsequent strategy discussions / meetings.

12.1 Positions of trust

People can be considered to be in a 'position of trust' where they are likely to have contact with adults at risk as part of their employment or voluntary work, and:

- Where the role carries an expectation of trust,
- The person is in a position to exercise authority, power or control over an adult(s) at risk (as perceived by the adult(s) at risk).

Positions of trust may include, but are not limited to any staff working in or on behalf of:

- Social care
- Health services
- Police and criminal justice
- Housing
- Education

This also includes adults who are coaching, teaching, training, supervising, or instructing in a sport or a religion.

12.2 Additional guidance

Employers, student bodies and voluntary organisations should have clear procedures in place setting out the process, including timescales, for investigation and what support and advice will be available to individuals against whom allegations have been made. Employers, student bodies and voluntary organisations should have their own sources of advice (including legal advice) in place for dealing with such concerns.

13 Good practice, poor practice, and abuse

Introduction

It can be difficult to distinguish poor practice from abuse, whether intentional or accidental.

It is not the responsibility of any individual involved in Energize STW to make judgements regarding whether or not abuse is taking place, however, all Energize STW personnel have the responsibility to recognise and identify poor practice and potential abuse, and act on this if they have concerns.

13.1 Good practice

Energize STW expects that coaches and leaders of adult activity:

- Are aware of the UK Coaching 'Code of Practice for Sports Coaches' <https://www.ukcoaching.org/resources/topics/guides/code-of-practice-for-sports-coaches>

- Have completed a course in basic awareness in working with Adults at Risk.

13.1.1 Everyone should:

- Aim to make experiences fun and enjoyable.
- Promote fairness and playing by the rules.
- Not tolerate the use of prohibited or illegal substances.
- Treat all adults equally and preserve their dignity; this includes giving more and less talented members of a group similar attention, time, and respect.

13.1.2 Coaches and those working directly with adults should:

- Respect the developmental stage of each participant and not risk sacrificing their welfare in a desire for personal achievement.
- Ensure that the activity intensity is appropriate to the physical, social, and emotional stage of the development of the participant.
- Build relationships based on mutual trust and respect, encouraging adults to take responsibility for their own development and decision-making.
- Always be publicly open when working with adults:
 - avoid activity sessions or meetings where a coach/instructor and participant are completely unobserved.
- Avoid unnecessary physical contact with people. Physical contact (touching) can be appropriate so long as:
 - It is neither intrusive nor disturbing.
 - The participant's permission has been openly given.
 - It is delivered in an open environment.
 - It is needed to demonstrate during an activity session.
- Maintain a safe and appropriate relationship with participants and avoid forming intimate relationships with participants you are working with as this may threaten the position of trust and respect present between participant and coach/leader.
- Be an excellent role model by maintaining appropriate standards of behaviour.
- Gain the consent of the adult and, where appropriate, the consent of relevant carers, in writing, to administer emergency first aid or other medical treatment if the need arises.
- Be aware of medical conditions, disabilities, existing injuries, and medicines being taken and keep written records of any injury or accident that occurs, together with details of treatments provided.
- Arrange that someone with current knowledge of emergency first aid is available at all times.
- Gain written consent from the correct people and fill out relevant checklists and information forms for travel arrangements and trips. This must be the adult themselves if they have capacity to do so.

13.2 Poor practice

The following are regarded as poor practice and should be avoided:

- Unnecessarily spending excessive amounts of time alone with an individual adult.
- Engaging in rough, physical, or sexually provocative games, including 'horseplay'.
- Allowing or engaging in inappropriate touching of any form.
- Using language that might be regarded as inappropriate by the adult and which may be hurtful or disrespectful.
- Making sexually suggestive comments, even in jest.
- Reducing an adult to tears as a form of control.
- Letting allegations made by an adult go un-investigated, unrecorded, or not acted upon.
- Taking an adult at risk alone in a car on journeys, however short.
- Inviting or taking an adult at risk to your home or office where they will be alone with you.
- Sharing a room with an adult at risk.
- Doing things of a personal nature that adults at risk can do for themselves.

Note: At times it may be acceptable to do some of the above. In these cases, to protect both the adult at risk and yourself, seek written consent from the adult at risk and, where appropriate, their carers, ensuring that the Lead Safeguarding Officer of your organisation is aware of the situation and gives their approval.

If, during your care, an adult at risk suffers any injury, seems distressed in any manner, appears to be sexually aroused by your actions, or misunderstands / misinterprets something you have done, report these incidents as soon as possible to another adult in the organisation and complete an incident report form.

Steps 1-5 Initial response (as soon as you receive the Safeguarding referral)

Step 1: Is someone at immediate risk of harm/danger or in need of immediate medical attention?

NO

YES

Call emergency services
999/112

If harm is occurring within the organisation
use relevant procedures e.g.
breach of code of conduct to prevent further harm.

Step 2 – Safeguarding Report Details

If you have been sent an Incident Report Form check that you can understand what is written and that all the necessary parts have been completed

If you are being contacted directly, request a completed Incident Report Form (staff and volunteers) or fill in the form with the person making the report (public/adult themselves)

Step 3 - Person Making the Report

Inform, reassure, and advise the person making the report e.g. what to do/what not to do. Explain what will happen next. Reinforce the need for confidentiality.

Step 4 - Person at Risk

What are the risks? What are the views of the adult? Are they an adult at risk? Do they need support to make decisions about their safety?

Do you need to contact the adult directly? Is it safe for you to do so?

Step 5 – Person at Risk

If it is safe to do so - ensure the person at risk has information about what will happen next. Make sure they have been given information about other organisations that can support them (see Appendix 4).
